1. ACADEMIC FOUNDATIONS & BACKGROUND

Prof. (Dr.) Mukti Nath Singh is a distinguished Indian academician, economist, and visionary social worker who has dedicated over four decades to higher education and community development in Bihar. Born on January 17, 1953, in the village of Dharupur near Bikramganj in Rohtas district, HE is the son of the late Raj Bahadur Singh. His journey reflects a lifelong commitment to fostering intellectual growth and elevating rural infrastructure.

2. ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE, DOCTORAL GUIDANCE & LEADERSHIP

Dr. Singh's academic foundation was built at Magadh University, where HE earned his B.A. (Hons), M.A., and Ph.D. in Economics. On January 5, 1977, HE embarked on his formal teaching career, marking the beginning of a prolific 40-year legacy in higher education. As an eminent research guide and mentor, approximately 15 research scholars have been successfully awarded Ph.D. degrees under his direct guidance.

Throughout his career, Dr. Singh held several prestigious administrative and leadership positions. HE served with distinction as a Professor of Economics at Veer Kunwar Singh University (V.K.S.U.) in Ara, and as the Head of the Post Graduate Department of Economics at H.D. Jain College, Ara. His administrative acumen was further demonstrated during his tenure as the Director and HOD of the P.G. Department of Personnel Management and Industrial Relations (PMIR) at V.K.S.U. (2007–2011), and as the Principal of Sri Shankar College in Sasaram from 2011 to 2013.

3. CONTRIBUTIONS TO RESEARCH & POLICY

As a highly respected voice in Indian economics, Dr. Singh has been deeply involved in institutional governance and research. HE served as an active member of both the Senate and the Finance Committee of V.K.S. University. His intellectual contributions span multiple national platforms as a Life Time Member of the Indian Economic Association, the Bihar Economic Association, and the Indian Institute of Public Administration (I.I.P.A.) in New Delhi.

Driven by a passion for research, Dr. Singh has shaped academic literature as the Editor of the research journal NAVA ARTHIKI, former Chairman of the Editorial Board for Gramonmukh (Karpoori Thakur Institute for Labour Studies and Rural Development), and an advisory board member for the social science journal Bharat Khanda.

4. PHILANTHROPY & SOCIAL IMPACT

While his academic achievements are extensive, Dr. Singh's enduring legacy lies in his commitment to his roots. Driven by a desire to bring quality education to his rural birthplace, HE is the founder and first donor of both Veer Kunwar Singh Degree College and Raj Bahadur Singh Inter College in Dharupur, Bikramganj, Rohtas, creating critical academic pathways for local rural youth.

Turning his attention to healthcare, Dr. Singh is currently channeling his efforts into institutional philanthropy by establishing the dedicated MNS Women and Child Care Hospital in Bikramganj city. Through this medical initiative, HE aims to bridge vital healthcare gaps, ensuring sustainable welfare and medical support for women and children in the region. Today, Dr. Singh continues to divide his time between Patna and his permanent home in Dharupur, balancing intellectual pursuits with local grassroots development.
