Professor Vinay Kishore Singh

"A Life of Learning, Service and Values". A teacher by profession, a sportsperson by passion, a social worker by conviction, and a father and grandfather by the deepest bonds of love—Professor Vinay Kishore Singh's enduring legacy lies in the values he has lived and the lives he continues to inspire.

Prof. Vinay Kishore Singh is an eminent educationist, dedicated social worker and a man deeply rooted in the values of patriotism, discipline, honesty and service. Born on 2 July 1953 at Neknaam Tola in Bhojpur district, Bihar, he is the son of Late Shri Sheo Bachcha Singh and Late Smt. Devlato Devi. He belongs to a family with a proud legacy of patriotism and public service. His great-grandfather, Late Shri Chhabinath Singh, popularly known as "Suraji Baba," was a freedom fighter.

Prof. Singh received his initial education at Nathmalpur and completed his high school education at Gaziapur in Bhiojpur. He pursued his Intermediate in Science at Patna Science College, followed by graduation from Ara Jain College. He subsequently obtained his M.Sc. in Physics from Magadh University, Bodh Gaya. His academic journey laid the foundation for a long and distinguished career in teaching. Since 1980, Professor Singh has been associated with J.D. Women's College, Patna, where he has devoted himself to the teaching of Physics and the academic development of generations of students. Over the years, he has served as a Senior Professor in the department, earning respect for his knowledge, discipline, sincerity and unwavering commitment to his profession. Even today, he remains actively engaged in teaching and university examinations, reflecting his enduring passion for academics.

A person with a strong sense of national pride and social responsibility, Prof. Singh has always been committed to the welfare of the underprivileged and to the larger good of society. As the Working President of Rajput Mahasabha for nearly ten years, he worked actively for the upliftment and guidance of the younger generation of our community. His active social life continues to be marked by his readiness to help relatives, friends and members of society and to contribute towards resolving their problems.

Prof. Singh was married in 1974 to Late Smt. Ramawati Singh of Tirthkaul village, Sandesh, Arrah. He is blessed with three children—one son and two daughters—and three grandchildren. His elder son is a professor in management studies and also pursuing a career in politics. Elder daughter is a doctor and younger one is a teacher. A devoted father and grandfather, he has played an especially significant role in the upbringing of his grandchildren, lovingly supporting the family while his daughters pursued their professional careers.

An accomplished sportsperson with a special interest in athletics, he won several prizes and awards during his younger years. His love for sports continues unabated, and he remains an enthusiastic follower of cricket, football and lawn tennis. He is also a voracious reader of spiritual literature and takes a keen interest in political discussions.

Above all, Professor Vinay Kishore Singh is known for his uncompromising honesty, discipline, hard work and sincerity. Through his life, he has guided his family with wisdom and strong values, teaching them that dedication to one's profession, integrity in one's conduct and commitment to family and society are the true foundations of a meaningful life. Even today, he continues to lead an active, purposeful and socially engaged life, inspiring those around him through his example.
